para servidores do Instituto Nacional do Seguro Social (INSS) deve ser assinada ainda esta semana pelo presidente Luiz Inácio Lula da Silva.

A medida vai fazer com que os funcionários consigam analisar mais pedidos de benefícios, em um esforço para diminuir a fila de espera.

Até o fim de junho, estavam à espera de perícia médica e análise administrativa cerca de 1,8 milhão de pedidos relacionados a benefícios como aposentadoria, pensão, salário-maternidade, auxílio assistencial para idosos e pessoa com deficiência, por exemplo.

"Hoje tem uma média de 800 mil pedidos a cada mês, além da fila. Há três meses consecutivos estamos atendendo mais pedidos de pedido inicial, ou seja, estamos atendendo mais do que recebemos. O bônus de produtividade faz o chamado contratado. Você tem um turno normal e você vai ter um contrato, em que o servidor vai receber uma gratificação para poder fazer só a fila. Então nós vamos começar demora", afirmou.

No último dia 5, o Ministério da Previdência Social lançou o Portal da Transparência Previdenciária. Pela internet, qualquer cidadão pode consultar o tamanho e o perfil da fila do INSS. Até o fim do mês passado, 36% dos pedidos estavam dentro da meta de até 45 dias.

O ministro citou ainda a informatização e convênios com ministério e órgãos públicos como caminhos para otimizar a produção do INSS.

"Todo o programa de assistência social é feito pelo CadÚnico, sistema que os municípios têm. Se o Ministério do Desenvolvimento e Assistência Social, Família e Combate à Fome [MDS] faz um atendimento da assistência social, por que eu tenho que fazer de novo, por que isso não pode ser automático? Já estão começando as experiências piloto para que tudo aquilo que for de assistência social seja automático. Saiu do lado do MDS, aqui é só conceder, é só liberar", explicou Lupi.
